

Autoimmune Clinic – Terms and conditions

This website is owned and operated by Autoimmune Clinic Ltd (www.autoimmuneclinic.co.uk). By using this website you are agreeing to accept the following terms and conditions. As these terms and conditions may be updated from time to time, you should check regularly to make sure you are aware of the up-to-date current version.

Disclaimer

Autoimmune Clinic denies all liability to the fullest extent permitted by law for any loss or damage resulting (either directly or indirectly) from access to and/or use of this web site, or the use of information and materials contained on it or any associated or linked web site.

Accuracy

Although we have taken all reasonable steps to provide you with access to adequate and reputable content, we make no warranties or representations as to its accuracy or the accuracy of any information contained in associated or linked sites.

Links

Autoimmune Clinic is not responsible for the content or reliability of external websites. Links should not be taken as an endorsement, guarantee, warranty or representation by Autoimmune Clinic of the quality or accuracy of the information, products or services provided to you. We cannot guarantee that these links will work at all times and we have no control over the availability of linked pages. Please be aware that Autoimmune Clinic is not responsible for the privacy practices of other websites.

Copyright

Different copyright restrictions apply to individual documents on this website. Autoimmune Clinic has tried to acknowledge the copyright of others where necessary. Unless otherwise stated, or the context otherwise makes clear, the following copyright statement applies to the documents found on this website.

“Individual personal users are granted permission to access Autoimmune Clinic copyright material, which may be reproduced free of charge in any format or medium, provided it is reproduced accurately and not used in a misleading context. Where any of the material on this site is being republished or copied to others, the material must be identified, and the copyright status acknowledged. The permission to reproduce Autoimmune Clinic copyright protected material does not extend to any material on this site that is identified as being the copyright of a third party. Authorisation to reproduce such material must be obtained from the copyright holders concerned.”

Under the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998, the reproduction and use of names and addresses on this website for commercial purposes is strictly prohibited. There is further information about data protection and this website in the separate section on data protection.

Information about you

There are times when you may provide us with information about yourself, such as your name, address or email address:

if you send us a query by email or provide feedback, we will be aware of your email address and your name, if you include it if you register your interest in becoming a Autoimmune Clinic member we will store your name and email address.

We will use this information primarily to enable us to respond to your request or feedback; we may also retain the information and your query or feedback to help us monitor use of the website in order to ensure that we are providing the best service we can.

If you do not wish us to retain your name, address or email address after we have responded to you, you should tell us so when you contact us.

We will not make any personal information available to a third party (another organisation or person outside Autoimmune Clinic), unless required to do so by law, but we may use anonymous information about your enquiry or feedback in monitoring or reporting on the use of the website. We may include information about the number and types of enquiry received through the website.

We will take reasonable precautions to ensure the security of your personal information; however, we cannot guarantee the safety of information sent over the Internet.

Information about your use of this website

This website may automatically collect anonymous information about your visits, such as your internet provider, your browser, how long you stay on the site and what pages you visit. None of this information can be linked to you and is used by us only to help improve the website. For instance, if we know which sections are most often used and which are visited less often and for less time, we can make changes that will enable the website to better meet the needs of our diverse range of visitors.

Virus protection

Autoimmune Clinic makes every effort to check and test material for viruses. However, it is recommended that you run an anti-virus program on all material downloaded from the Internet. Autoimmune Clinic does not accept any responsibility for any loss, disruption or damage to your data or your computer system that may occur whilst using material derived from this website.

Other websites

This website links to other websites and you should be aware that the privacy policies of other websites may be different to, and are not the responsibility of Autoimmune Clinic.

Applicable law

These terms and conditions shall be governed by English law.
